BOSTON, October 12.—The anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus observed as holiday here coincided with the fifth game of the World Series between the Brooklyn Nationals and the Boston Americans. Thousands of persons freed from labor by the holiday took advantage of the opportunity to go to Braves field. The result in the opinion of the club officials before the game, was likely to be the greatest crowd in the history of baseball. Braves field, although holding the record for attendance of 42,300 in the series of last year has not yet been taxed to capacity this year.
It was the last trench fight which Brooklyn prepared to make against the Red Sox. Three of four games already played had gone against them by the force of Boston batmen's strength or the sureness of the Red Sox pitchers. Only one game lay between Boston and another world championship.
Financial rewards this year exceeded those of last year. The Red Sox, feeling certain of final success in today's game, contemplated with satisfaction their share in $162,927.45, which is their portion of receipts of the first four games after which their participation in gate money ends. Of his amount 60 per cent or $97,756 will be turned over to the winners. Should this go to Boston they will divide probably on a 25 share basis allowing $3,910.25 a share.
Although 26 Red Sox players are eligible to play in the series not all will receive full shares and it is understood the players have agreed on the division by 25ths with the idea of slipping up several shares among the lesser members of the club minor officials and employees.
Brooklyn if she loses will have $65,169.98 to divide among 23 players, or about $3,333.47 a man.
But if the players are pleased with the unprecedented reward the club owners were more satisfied with the fact that the rival teams were to play today before a probable record crowd. Except for the National Commission's ten per cent the clubs receive the entire receipts as they will in succeeding games if any are necessary.
The clubs have added already $54,309 each to their coffers and with today's expected addition the share of each should aggregate approximately $90,000.

CARRIGAN

Resembled Funny Page Character; Blew Himself Up

CHISHOLM, Minn., Oct. 12.—Because he believed the funny sections of Sunday newspapers were making him a subject of ridicule and that persons were deriding him because of his resemblance to a funny page character, Charles N. Marilla, 25 years old, unmarried, committed suicide today by blowing himself up with dynamite.

NINTH INNING.
Brooklyn—Official attendance 42,630. Receipts $83,873. Stengel singles to left. Wheat struck out. Cutshaw out, second to first. Stengel went to second. Mowry out, fly to short. No runs, one hit, no errors.

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL.

"When in Bahston, do as the Bahstons do!" Walk down the street with friends in Chinese fashion (one behind the other) eat baked potatoes in the morning, and say "cawnt" and "lawt."
Tapping the wire on a Brooklyn fan—
"Why, Bill, that boid Daubert at first is a poll. Lookit 'im nip them foists from thoid, no chin music about it. Bud, he's a pink poll."

The guy who published that song "There's plenty of room at the top is dead wrong. Ask Gran'paw Robinson, he knows."

We'd like to see some of those poor he'fish that prance up and down Fifth avenue Sunday afternoons sitting with the Brooklyn 'loids' in the bleachers at the Dodger park.

Three inches of water in the tub ain't enough for some guys but it's just about two and a half inches too much for Gran'paw Robinson, m'gr of the Dodgers.

Mowry, third baseman for the trolley boys, has only a couple of orphan teeth left. He isn't very old but has been barking up against Brooklyn boarding house steaks for much time.

You'd be up a tree just as much in Unga, Africa, trying to understand the chatter as you'd be in Brooklyn.

Olson, the Brooklyn short stop, isn't a musician but he's something like the Mick that muttered, "Ol can't play a fiddle, but if I had one I'd play it if I could play one."

DEMOCRATS MADE BIDS FOR GERMAN-AMERICAN SUPPORT

United States Senator Stone Held Conference in Beer Garden

BURLESON'S GUMSHOEING

Some Inside History of Shady Character About the Campaign.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 12.—In a signed statement today Victor Ridder of the New York Staats Zeitung denied absolutely the story made public by Norman Haggood, of the Wilson Independent League, to the effect that Mr. Ridder had told State Senator Kellor of Illinois that he had written a campaign speech for Mr. Hughes in which Mr. Hughes would attack England in order to hold the German vote. Mr. Ridder says there was a meeting between himself and Senator Kellor, but that knowing Mr. Kellor, he had witnessed present and he has the written statement of one of these witnesses, Henry Abeles of New York, that no such remarks as are credited to him by Kellor and Haggood were ever made.

Instead Kellor was endeavoring to persuade Mr. Ridder to call on President Wilson at the White House, and assured Mr. Ridder that Mr. Wilson "can convince you in the course of an hour or two, that he is friendly to Germany." Mr. Ridder declares that Mr. Kellor "for his own purposes willfully placed words in my mouth which were never spoken."

Having disposed of this canard Mr. Ridder goes on to make some extremely interesting disclosures concerning the efforts of the Wilson administration to curry favor secretly with the German American voters whom Mr. Wilson publicly brands as disloyal. He says that "Mr. Abeles happened to be present at the meeting with Mr. Kellor, having called as the bearer of an invitation from Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the Senate, to discuss the questions of the campaign at a gathering of influential German Americans to be arranged at Terrace Garden that very evening."

"I declined the invitation, Mr. Abeles immediately called up Senator Stone from the Staats Zeitung office and told him that I had declined Senator Stone then spoke to me saying that he would regard it as a personal favor not only to come myself but also to bring influential German Americans with me. Under the circumstances I feel that we should at least hear what Senator Stone had to say and so a number of us gathered at Terrace Garden for dinner at 8 o'clock on September 16 as the guest of Mr. Abeles. Senator Stone used all his well known powers of persuasion, and I am ready to concede him the palm as an able advocate of the administration, to convince us that the apparent anti-German-American policies of the Wilson administration were only for public consumption and that privately they were ready to work hand in glove with the German-American leaders. The whole object of this conference so far as Senator Stone was concerned was to find out what action was necessary on the part of the administration in order to secure the support of German-Americans at the coming election. Can anything be more humiliating than the spectacle of the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the senate gumshoeing in a small room of a third avenue beer garden and bar-

Bids Open on New Holbert Residence

WILL BE FIRST PURE COLONIAL TYPE HOME IN CITY

Plans for what will be one of the most attractive residences in the Fairmont suburbs were submitted to prospective bidders today. These are for the new home to be built on Peacock Farm for Edward Holbert.

The house will be the first example in this community of the pure New England type of colonial country home. The young firm of Jones and Nuzum, who have also designed many of the popular English rural type cottages in that section of the city; one of the most striking of which is the new residence of John Gordon Smythe in the West End addition, are the architects of this home. The architects have also planned a beautiful landscape gardening effect that will appropriately harmonize with the house.

The two-story and attic house painted colonial white with a green slate roof and green shutters; containing six rooms, service quarters and service kitchen wing; will when completed occupy the site where the Vanderport house formerly stood, across the farm driveway, opposite the Sands home. Back of the new residence is to be a formal garden while on either side wide lawns fringed with shrubbery slope from the house.

Gleaves Skeptical About Kingstonian

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Rear Admiral Gleaves commanding the Atlantic destroyer fleet, reported today his personal belief that no steamer Kingston or Kingstonian was sunk by the German submarine during its operations on Nantucket coast.

After several days of search the destroyer has found no evidence that a ship of that name was in the vicinity and if Admiral Gleaves' theory is correct only five ships were sunk.

Governor Hughes was given splendid ovations at all of his stops in West Virginia yesterday and during the afternoon he said to a reporter who was on board the train:
"I cannot find words adequate to express my appreciation of the reception West Virginia has given me today. I take this gathering of West Virginia citizens today to be an expression, not alone of confidence in the national ticket but a demonstration of their faith in the principles of the Republican party."

"Not alone do we seek the election of the national ticket, but we want a Republican congress to put on the statute books of our country laws that will protect such industrial and labor interests as you have here in these West Virginia hills and valleys. You have a splendid man at the head of your state ticket in the person of Judge Ira Robinson, who we are delighted to have with us today, and it is a pleasure to see the approval your citizens are giving his race for the governorship of this state. I am told that your Republican congressional and senatorial aspirants in the state are also men of high character. We need them in congress to support the national ticket if it is successful, and I feel sure it will be, and it will be a pleasure to me to read on the morning after the election that every Republican candidate for the house and senate in this state has been elected along with Judge Robinson."

"The election of other state officials and county and district candidates is essential to a complete Republican victory, inasmuch as it means a complete expression of confidence in the Republican party's principles, and if our visit has been an inspiration to your state, county and district workers, as I hope it has, I am more than pleased that such should be the case."
"The outlook wherever I have been is encouraging. Not less bright than elsewhere is the situation in my own state of New York and I believe that
